The Fédération Sportive LGBT+ brings together more than 50 LGBT+ sports associations across France, representing more than 8,000 athletes.

Recognised as a public utility by the French Ministry of Sport, it fights discrimination, promotes access to sport for all and combats LGBTphobia. Founded on respect, inclusion, solidarity, surpassing oneself and sharing, it encourages an inclusive and egalitarian sporting environment.

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA).
