The summer of 2024 is rich in European sporting events: European Athletics Championship in Rome, Euro 2024 soccer in Germany, Tour de France cycling race, Paris Olympic and Paralympic Games. Against this backdrop, ten European countries have joined forces to create "A European Journey through Sport", an educational exhibition on European sporting cultures.

Through anecdotes, photos and infographics, you will discover more about sporting practices in Austria, Bulgaria, Finland, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Portugal, Spain and Sweden.

Did you know, for example, that Gaelic sports are more popular than soccer or rugby in Ireland? Or that 9 out of 10 Finns are physically active?
