The European Sports Festival aims to seize the unique opportunity offered by the Paris 2024 Olympic and Paralympic Games to promote the cultural richness, fundamental values and advantages of the European Union to a wide audience through the prism of sport.

To achieve this goal, ten European Union countries have joined forces to create a festival designed to raise public awareness of the importance of sport as a vehicle for health and equality, while highlighting the diverse sporting cultures of the European Union's partner member states.

The project was also made possible thanks to UFOLEP, the operational partner, and the support of the City of Vincennes.
